

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2010

Prophecy100905c – Sep 5, 2010 Be Strong and of a Good Courage

What I am asking of you, I will provide for you, says the Spirit of Grace. For all you who run out in front with the banner, speaking My Word over this body and praying great mysteries and tongues of intercession, know this, that I am pulling you up into a higher place of accessing My strength, says the Spirit of Grace. So receive the abundance of peace and grace and know that I am going to strengthen you for battle because you will lead the battle array, and you will cause others to come in like a great and mighty flood into this house. And those who will follow you will be strengthened by My strength in you and through you, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not, do not, He says, do not be afraid. For did I not say to Joshua who is a type and shadow of that which was to come, for Joshua was the Church going into the promise, so I said to them as I say to you now: Be not dismayed, says the Spirit of Grace. Have not I commanded you be strong and of a good courage?

For your enemy will come, (I hear the word “smokescreen”) even to challenge these kinds of things. Immediately, he will come, but if you will know this, you will laugh at him, as if to say, “My God has given me the land in front of me, and no giant, no giant is able to stand between me and my inheritance.” Know this, that you will find that all of your enemies fall before you, and you will find that at every juncture, you will find My grace is sufficient, says the Spirit of the Lord.