Prophecy100912a – Sep 12, 2010 My Father Sees You as He Sees Me

In the world you will have tribulation. As I said, in the world you will have tribulation, but be of good comfort, I have overcome the world, says the Spirit of Grace. Not only have I overcome he who comes to you, but I have overcome in that part that he would use in you, against you.

Know this, that when you choose Me, you have chosen a place, a place to be seated with Me in Heavenly places, says the Spirit of Grace. And in that place, My Father sees you as He sees Me, with no weaknesses, with inability to fall but to stand strong and to go forward, so I say to you today: Be strong, be courageous, understand who you are and fight the good fight.
