Prophecy100912b – Sep 12, 2010 Confirmation of Truth Is Peace

There are some who are searching of truth and a place of belonging and knowing and understanding. Know this, that the greatest confirmation of what is truth is also coupled with peace, says the Spirit of Grace.

So even when the things around you don't quite fit your theology, know that when I am able, and there is a window of opportunity, I will slip peace into your spirit, and the peace will confirm to you that the things that you are witnessing, as in confirmation to your heart's desire—those things are My way and the things that I am getting over to you to take you to a higher place and fulfill the desires and the longings of your heart, says the Spirit of Grace.
