

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2010

Prophecy100919a – Sep 19, 2010 Exaltation Is Always a Matter of Choice

I desire above all things that you prosper and be in health even as your soul prospers, and know this, that even to this hour and beyond, I desire to exalt you out of all your tribulation. But know this, that it is not hidden to My Church of the way that I have provided for your exaltation. For know this: The choice is always in your hands, and the matter of change is always in your hands, and going higher in Me and watching My coming to you and bringing you through to the other side is always a matter of choice in your hands, says the Spirit of Grace.

So rejoice in these things, and again I say, rejoice and know that it is of utmost and supreme desire that I exalt you out of these things, says the Spirit of Grace.