My Joy Is Your Strength

This is My pleasure—He wants you to know how much pleasure He derives on days like this. He says you say, “We had a high time. Wasn’t it wonderful?” But I say that My joy is your strength. For in days gone by, you saw the joy as something that came and bubbled up in you and became a strength to you. But I say unto you that the joy that I derive from you spills over to you, and that which you give Me and that which I as a Father receive from you becomes My joy, and My joy becomes your strength, says the Spirit of Grace.
