

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2010

Prophecy101128 – Nov 28, 2010
All Strength, All Power, and All Honor Is Yours

Be not weary in well doing, for know this, that if you will press in towards the mark for that prize which is My high calling, and that is to get to know Him whose glory sets above the heavens, and if you will press into Him, know this, that all strength and all power and all honor that has been transferred to Him will also be transferred over to you, says the Spirit of Grace. For know this, that an unbelievable, according to mankind, dichotomy is coming in the last days. For many will grow weak and faint and quit, and the world will be consumed in darkness, but those who know Me will get brighter and brighter and will burn as the noonday sun, says the Spirit of Grace.

My glory will rest upon those who are strong, and those who are strong will increase in strength and will carry the message of this Gospel, and then shall the end come, says the Spirit of Grace.

By this will all men know that you are My disciples, by your love one for another, and because of that love, you will not walk in a spirit of timidity. Where others who are called by My Name back down and are fearful because of the times, you will take on a spirit that conquers, and you will run to the battle, and you will rejoice in the middle of the battle because greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world.

Did I not say and did I not forewarn you that in the last days these things would come, perilous times would come, men would be mockers and lovers of themselves, heady, high-minded, blasphemers, haters of God? But know this: To all those who know My Word and keep My Word, great strength increases daily for you as those who enter in behind the veil through worship and the meditation of My Word.

Know this: You see yourself as yourself. You see yourself as yourself, meaning you only know who you are based on your commentary of yourself. But He said, those of you who will increase in strength will be mighty and move outside of yourself, not knowing who you are until the accomplished thing is done, and then you will look back and say, “My, how God used me to do this thing and bring it forth in my family and to bring forth salvations among those whom I have been calling out before the Lord.”