

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2011

Prophecy110116 – Jan 16, 2011 A New and Different Atmosphere

Understand the mind of the Lord. Understand My visitations, all who have ears to hear and eyes to see, that when I come and shut you down and quiet you, it is a supernatural visitation of My Spirit to begin to recalibrate—I can put it in my own words: He wants to reboot you. For many, many voices are in the world, and the noise that is in your head that talks, mostly is the noise that occupies your world and demands your attention. But hear these words: Hear the voice of the Bridegroom that cometh: Behold, I come quickly, and My reward is with Me, says the Spirit of Grace.

I desire to shut you down so that I can come in and rearrange your priorities, says the Spirit of Grace. This is what He said. For sooner than what you realize, the services that you call “church” will take upon themselves a new and a different atmosphere. For presently you come together to worship Me and bind yourselves together in that place of adoration, and these things are My foundation which will always remain, but know this, that there is unto you given a great opportunity for the harvest, says the Spirit of Grace. And soon the emphasis in your hearts, as has always been in Mine, will be whom you bring in and whom you go out and minister to in the highways and the byways, says the Spirit of Grace.

For I desire that the latter Church exceed the former Church, says the Spirit of Grace, so that that which is on you in these last days is a shining witness of everything that I left in the earth, says the Spirit of the Lord. So that when you come together, your joy will be in this: watching the masses come together with you and surrender their life unto the One who gave His life for their salvation, says the Spirit of the Lord.

I will visit you. Do not think it strange that I will visit you in these times and seasons and bring everything to a quietness. Don't try, don't strive, do not debate inside yourself—surrender. Surrender what you hear. Surrender what I say. Surrender and know this, that if I ask of you that I also give you the grace and the strength and the empowerment to yield your members over to Me, says the Spirit.