Tell Them More About Me

To all those whom you know—tell them more about Me. Behold, I come quickly. So take Me to those whom you know, those whom you love. Share Me with them. They so long to hear words of life. I love them, and I want you to tell them more about Me.

Behold, I come quickly. Don't wait too long. Take Me to those you love and share Me with them. Don't be shy. Don't be afraid, I will give you the word in due season. I will speak through you. You don't have to say a thing—My words will flow, so don't worry. Let Me speak words of life to all those, all those whom I love. They are Mine. I have room for you all.
