Cultivate Communion

Cultivate this place of communion with Me, of fellowship with Me, for it's in this place where all I want to do gets done. All the rest is to get you to this place of communion with Me where I can speak and you can listen. I love this place with you. I am always drawing you to this place.

I delight in you. It brings Me such joy to fellowship and commune with you, such joy. Just as I said to Jesus, "You are My Beloved in whom I am well pleased," I say this to you. You are My beloved in whom I am well pleased.
