

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2011

Prophecy110209 – Feb 9, 2011

I Am Limitless

How think you that you have exhausted My love? says the Spirit of Grace. How think you that you have exhausted My resources or My avenues to help? Do you not know that in the millennia's to come and far-out ages of eternity which are to come, you will continue to receive of My wisdom and My knowledge and most of all of the revelation of My love to you? says the Spirit of Grace. So if I have all these things hidden away for eternities, that on every turn you'll find a new revelation of My grace and of My love, do you think now that you've exhausted all that I know?

For you've exhausted all that you know, and I have only been able to tell you what you've been able to walk in obedience with. But know this, that if you will take the step of obedience and continue to worship Me and to endure in the midst of trouble and trial, know that the next part of instruction and grace and most of all the revelation of My love will be made manifest to you, says the Spirit of Grace.

I have so many, He says, for every dilemma, I have hundreds of ways to answer it. In your mind and because of the surrounding battle, you limit Me to one way or limit yourself and think if it can not happen this way, then there is no other recourse. Know this, that I am the God of creation, and I am limitless. I have limitless capacity to get over to you all that you have need of and much, much more in this life, says the Spirit of Grace.