Receive My Word and Live

My words, they are quick, and they are powerful, and they are sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul, spirit, joints, marrow—discerner of thoughts, intents of heart. Know this, receive My Word and live.

Receive My Word and live. Cause those things of the Spirit wherein you worship Me to come forth—come forth as part of your life and the confession of your mouth and the praise of your heart. Know this, that as a reigning King, I will perform these things in the days ahead.
