I Will Teach You

Tenderly, as a Father, I will teach you. Be not dismayed by reason of the enemy and the debate that comes to your soul often, says the Spirit of Grace. But know that each time that you yield, even in the least, even when you do not feel My anointing, know that yieldedness to Me—a simple yes, a simple yes is the word yieldedness.

You yield to Me, My Spirit of Holiness, My Spirit of Compassion comes to you and does a work that you cannot see, so that down the road and days ahead and moments ahead, you'll find more freedom and more love and more compassion.

No man can take these things unto himself. Do not be discontent with yourself, but rather run into joy, knowing this, that the first step in true change is a yieldedness to Me, knowing that you cannot—it is impossible for you to do it of yourself. Take upon yourself this journey and please the Father. Please the Father as the Firstborn. Please the Father. Say yes on a continual basis and watch My transformation in you, says the Spirit of Grace.
