Prophecy110720a – Jul 20, 2011 You're Already Approved

Believe My words. Believe My prophet and live and prosper in assurance. For know this, to the least you would consider yourself among you, to everyone who gives themselves over to any momentary process of change, know this, that these things are sure and steadfast, and you are being changed from glory to glory, says the Spirit of Grace. There is no failure in Me, so take great hope on your most mundane day and your least experienced day of experiencing what you would say was God's "Presence."

Know this, as you understand by faith that I am always with you and will never leave you nor forsake you, understand this, that I always see you coming further and further in this light that I am calling you into, says the Spirit of Grace. So take great hope in knowing this, that on My side, My pleasure is extended towards you. For when you feel the least, know this: I count you in the greatest. I count you to be coming to a place where you'll be crowned continually with loving kindness and with tender mercies, says the Spirit of Grace.

For all these things in the days ahead will be traded off—the tradeoff for the fight compared to the reward by which you'll see in this life of the great influx of souls and the great things that you'll marvel [at], and men will marvel. Know this, that you'll even wonder about why you thought there was such a fight because the tradeoff will absolutely blind you to the memory of anything that was necessary in this day to get past in the flesh and to go on into My perfection, says the Spirit of Grace. So persevere in these days and take great joy. Do not wait till things change in the natural to rejoice, but know this: You're already approved of [by] your Father in Heaven. So if you're approved in your weaknesses, how much more will you be approved in your victories? says the Spirit of Grace.
