

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2011

Prophecy110821 - Aug 21, 2011

Truth Is Greater than Facts

There is no fear in My love, but perfect love cast out fear. Those who come before Me must believe that I am and am a Rewarder of those who diligently seek Me. For know this, that if you will ask of Me, I will give unto you all that is yours by inheritance, beginning first in this place which is the children's bread—to receive such great purging of the Father, for this is a great joy so few of My Church know. For those who have entered into My chastening have also entered into My rest, says the Spirit of Grace. Therefore, when you learn this secret of My purging, you will all the more run into this place, for this place does not hurt as has been described by the world or by your enemy. The pain that comes from this place is a pain that brings forth life and brings forth a desperation that cannot be satisfied by anything of the things of this earth, but only finds its quenching inside of My Spirit, says the Spirit of Grace.

Know this, that the walls of defenses that you've placed up in your mind against the accuser of the brethren, know this, that those walls come down in My purging and are replaced by an absolute confidence of who you are, not of yourself, but who you are in Me, says the Spirit of Grace. And I say unto you these things: These things are not fact, these things are truth. These things are not fact, they are truth. These things are not fact they are truth, says the Spirit of Grace. Therefore, when your enemy brings forth facts from the past, know this, that the truth that you dwell in is far greater than facts, says the Spirit of Grace.

one soul.