Prophecy 110828b

You're Spearheading Something

Tell him, He is so proud of you as a Father for moving forward as you have. When you're on the Apex, when you're the thing breaking the water in the realm of darkness you've got to know! When you're spearheading something, when you're spearheading something then that's where the attack is going to be. But know this, we're going to have what we're asking for, that which is the great outpouring. Hallelujah Jesus. Hallelujah. Until things are shaking and stirred.
