

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2011

Prophecy110930b – Sep 30, 2011 Don't Be Afraid of Me

Great healing virtue is in My Presence. For know this, why, why would you feel the Presence of a God for whom all things are possible and rejoice in that possibility without participating in the reality of it? says the Spirit of Grace. So enjoy the benefits of the children of God. Enjoy.

If you call out to Me for an outpouring, and if you believe that My Son's blood was sufficient, then receive the benefits, says the Spirit of Grace. Receive the benefits of My Spirit resting over a congregation and incubating them and bringing them higher and higher and loosing them from their infirmities, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not be afraid of My Presence. I will not harm you nor will I chasten you for your oftentimes iniquities and things that have yet to be changed—do not be afraid of Me, says the Spirit of Grace. The Holy Spirit Himself says, Do not be afraid of Me, but rather receive Me and know that in My Presence I will change you, and you will not be afraid, says the Spirit of Grace.

Some said, "I'd love to take the next step, but I know me. I've failed too many times to commit to anything for a long period of time." You're still looking at you, says the Spirit of Grace. I'm begging you—yes, He's on a bended knee saying this—He's asking you; He's asking you as a Father: Let Me love you; let Me strengthen you.

Do not argue with Me, as if to say "I know my failures, and I cannot march forward with any life-long commitment, knowing who I have been." But know this: You're still looking at you. I beg of you, look at Me, says the Spirit of Grace. Look at Me, says the Spirit of Grace.