

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center – 2011

Prophecy111009b – Oct 9, 2011 Know That It Will Come to Pass

The earlier Church was less conceived in My truth. [They had less written Word on hand.] I loved them like I love you now, but I wrote about those who would ask and ask amiss, and their amiss-asking meaning this: that their asking Me had very little consequence of reward or recompense, but those I said, they ask, but they asked that they may consume their request upon their own lust. But know this, to all those who now are asking according to My perfect will that is for the sheaves of the earth, the lost “wheat” to come in, know this, that your prayer request, it is impossible that it cannot be heard. And as I said, if your request is heard, then know that it will come to pass, says the Spirit of Grace.
