Let Me Show You My Love

I desire, says the Spirit of Grace, that you know how much I love you. For you hold yourself, your failures in a different regard than I hold you. For I desire to hold you up, and I desire to restore you, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not continue to wonder if I love you, but know this: I have given Heaven's Best just for you, just for you. And those whom I speak to, I am speaking to you in your heart now saying, Come, come and let Me show you My refreshing. Let Me show you My love towards you, and you'll find out that in the days ahead of your life, not only will I come and visit you, make a straight path for you, but you'll look back and say, "God, You had me in Your hands, "even now," says the Spirit of Grace.
