That Place is Traded off in Prayer

For this is the hour of the intercessor saith the Spirit of Grace. For I desire that all my intercessors that is all of mine, they gather them-self together male and female to bring forth the intercession and the birthing, the birthing of these things, the birthing of everything that I desire to do in you and through you in the church and in these last days saith the Spirit of Grace. For I come to you as a comforter and I come to you as a friend and I come to you as a loving father and I remind you to pray saith the Spirit of Grace. So much of your weakness, so much of your weaknesses is traded off in that place spending time in my presence. Did I not say that those who waited in me would renew their strength. Did I not tell you in James let him that is afflicted let him pray, that was not meant to be a one time prayer but that was to live a life in my presence. Know this that I desire to come and consume you saith the Spirit of Grace, wrap my arms around you and pick you up out of the present affliction and lift you higher and higher to where that you stand far above these things and it is, it is in spending time in prayer saith the Spirit of Grace. For know that in that time you'll trade your weaknesses and you'll find, you'll find that without knowing the same things that were said of the early church and my disciples they took notice that they had been with Jesus saith the Spirit of Grace. So do not, do not forget to pray, do not forget to spend the hours in my presence. For all weakness, all exchange is taking place. Know let him that is afflicted, let him pray saith the Spirit of Grace and you'll find, you'll find my Spirit without even requesting is picking you up higher and higher above these things so that your ruling and reining in my presence is so that you're giving the overflow of everything that I'm giving to you to the world that you're not walk, walking cripple you're not walking without but your walking within and your boldness comes from me saith the Spirit of Grace. Know the difference and weigh the truths, for there is one place where is a grind and a place of making a strong stand and in that stand you can win but know that there is a place beyond that where I carry you, I carry you so that it feels as if there is no effort on your part except just enjoying the ride until the end of the affliction until the end of the trial, know this that place is traded off in prayer saith the Spirit of Grace, that place is traded off in prayer saith the Spirit of Grace, that place is traded off in prayer saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah Jesus, your grace, your grace, more of it, more of my Grace will be seen against your weaknesses you'll find a standard of my Grace. I am not condemning you. There is a work of the flesh and a work of the Spirit, there's a work of the flesh and the work of the Spirit and the work of the flesh is you put so many standards for me to come and do something for you that it's hard to get past those places that you've put up, it's hard to get past your spiritual doubt because of the standards that you've placed. Once you're able to enter into me and into my agape and into my love you'll find that there's so much more of my grace Then you thought possible, so much more of my mercy and so much more of who I am to you from the beginning as I was to the first church saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus, hallelujah, Jesus, Jesus, I come with visions and dreams for there will come on this body to those who here and those will hear it as a recording, visions and dreams will increase saith the Spirit of the Lord, those things of the early church, the wisdom that comes by the empowerment of the Holy Spirit through dreams and through open visions there will come a time and shortly and now is in which open visions not just inward pictures but I will take you out in the spirit and I will prove by my word that it is me and not counterfeit saith the Spirit of Grace, for there are many counterfeits in the earth but I come with the true, I come with the righteous, I come in that which I have taught you from the beginning, you will know these things to be true and you will know these things to be perfect. Jesus
