Change is Happening Now

You've been looking for some outward sign of change but I say to you as a witness of the spirit, take confidence; war through my words and war through the words of this prophecy that I'm dealing with them saith the Spirit of Grace. Do you not believe and know when you lift up those who need my intervention know that I hear you and if I hear you then I will proceed upon their life. I'm working; they're not even telling you; they're not even reporting to you that I'm dealing with their life, much of the time because they do not know that I'm dealing with them but I am dealing with them. I am petitioning them and I'm circumventing their life with presence because of your prayers; therefore do not give up saith the Spirit of Grace. Change is happening not for the future; change is happening now; see it and believe it; it's happening now saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah Jesus, glorify you.
