Change, Expansion of My Grace

Just as I would have you to rejoice in that day and just as I would have you to rejoice in that day and because of that day I would have you rejoice in this day saith the Spirit of Grace. For note it in your heart and write it on a calendar for know that change, expansion of my grace is to you and in you and will work through you. For the strength that has been working in you individually and corporately has come to fullness. Know that as there are seasons in me and I did not say that there are dry seasons or seasons in which I allow the enemy to torment you or to destroy your body or your provisions but all my seasons are seasons of blessings but in those seasons I do certain things that will do and cannot do in others, and it is for your good and it is for the good of the harvest but know this that this day marks a day in you; it marks a day of expansion and marks a day of release and freedom in which you already know and believe stand in that. Believe the word of the prophet and hear my voice saith the Spirit of Grace. Know this that the enemy which has held on can hold on no longer. For the authority that is working in you is crumbling and crushing the enemy now saith the Spirit of Grace. Expect, expect to watch and rejoice as bodies are healed, provision comes to a much greater level. You may see this slow at the beginning, only to turn in the next few days or weeks. But know that in the spirit the momentum will build and continue to build so that over the next few months you will look back if you truly believe and receive this wisdom and say dear God what change is taken place in my body, in my finances, and to many of you even in your emotions saith the Spirit of Grace. I see fear leaving your homes, leaving your marriages, leaving your minds. Jesus breathe upon us now by the wind of the Holy Spirit; breathe upon us now. I just release your words, your words of warfare and of grace. I release them now to everyone in this building and everyone that will hear my voice through the Internet, hear the word of the Lord. Be filled with hope; be filled with hope for your future for it is strong saith the Lord. Blessings will expand from this place. Father we release it in Jesus name, hallelujah, hallelujah.
