

Prophecies – The Family Prayer Center - 2012

Prophecy121216

Hardly begun on the Goodness

For I desire to do a complete work, for the work that I accomplished at the cross for you was something to be placed in you for as long as you live in this body, but take note and be schooled in my presence. For I desire to change you spirit, soul and body; and then that you pray in this outpouring and after the outpouring begins that you teach others what you have learned. You have learned this and I will tell you what you have learned; that the Lord is good and his mercy endures forever; and that I will teach you how to live holy through that new nature; and I will teach you how to live healthy through that new nature. I say to you because I observed my people that most who receive healing never keep their healing; it is because they do not understand that the grace that healed them is also the grace that will teach them how to live their life victorious; live in me; walk in me; this is not a tight place, but there is room to be taught saith the Spirit of Grace. Do you think that I leave you and forsake you in your healing and in your deliverance? The moment that you do not walk in the fullness of my word I am there to teach you; but my body must be taught how to live in health and how to live in deliverance; not only to claim my word; but also to walk in the things that I say to you concerning your bodies. Know that many who are of the innocent and those who know nothing, will receive first because they are not accountable; but you will teach them how to walk in because you yourself are in these days of learning, not only to walk in the freedom that I have given you at the moment; but to continue to walk in that freedom; for your flesh says this is hard and cannot be attained to; but I say to you that you are hearing from your flesh; if you live out of the spirit you will find a likeness and a joy that will strengthen you and you will not see yourself; in fact you will turn around in days and weeks and months and times to come and say the way that I was on I made it hard for myself but now on the way that I am in, Him, I am found a place clothed in his strength, clothed by his righteousness and clothed by his peace and clothed by the grace that empowers me day after day. This is not a tight place; this is not a place where you lose my Grace from moment to moment but it is a place of trusting; it is a place of commitment; it is a place of accountability for I desire the record on earth to be the record that is in heaven that I have for once and forever healed you and delivered you and set you free saith the Spirit of Grace. Many of you will learn this process and many of you will come forth and teach the nations that the one time healing that takes place they can keep and the enemy cannot take from them; that the one time deliverance they can keep and the enemy will not take from them. The flesh will rise up against you; the enemy will rise up against you, but do not fear little children, I have overcome the world saith the Spirit of Grace; and I have made you more than conquerors. Do you believe that I have placed you in a body that I cannot Lord over? Do you believe that I have given you a mind so vulnerable that you must bow to the whims of the flesh and of the enemy when he comes? I have given you a mind which is the mind of Christ and I have given you a body that does not have to take disease and anxieties and fears but you must look unto me and you must learn a process of always looking to me and when you learn this process you will find that just as a child grows from adolescence to adulthood and the things that they could not reach on the shelf because they could not they were not tall enough their reach was not far-reaching enough and they strained and they thought it hard but when they became an adult the reach was simple and the reach was easy. Know this saith the spirit of the Lord, Many who are adults are not yet adults. Many who think to themselves and the enemy says to them you should have obtained by now; Know this that I joy in teaching you this last process saith the Spirit of Grace. For when you become full and when you become adults in this place of faith, your reach to spiritual things will be none other than an adult reaching across the counter to pick up that which is desired; It will be the ease of breathing; It will be the ease of seeing; It will be the ease of hearing; This is what my firstborn walked in; He did not beg me for the things that he desired; He did not beg me for provision nor the life that lived in his body; but know he lived constantly and continually as a mature son. Did I not say that he learned obedience by the things which he suffered? Coming mature for him was the same coming mature that is for you that you must continually rely upon me and walk in that place of expectation. Do not listen to other Christians who tell you less. For I tell you, they are not my voice; I love them; but they do not speak my word when they tell you to expect less. I tell you to expect more. For I tell you it has not yet been described to you yet, not by the voice that is speaking to you as a man nor anyone else that is around you. You have not yet heard the fullness of my glory; You have not yet heard the fullness of what I am capable of giving to you saith the Spirit of Grace; but you will catch these things and the fire will burn and I have seen your end and it is a glorious end; it is a wonderful end; it is an expected end; and many people running and clapping their hands and shouting for we have seen the glory of the Lord; We have seen the glory of the Lord; He has come as he said he would come, but I say to you; you must mature; You must grow. Do not look at the crowds. Do not look at the empty seats. Do not take strength in numbers. For know this that I can raise up in a days time the great multitude. Did I not say that I could cause the rocks to cry out and sing my praise? Am I not able that in a night and a day to so fill this house that you cannot find a place to get in and you would look and see if there was a place like those who brought the paralytic to my son but I say unto you grow in grace. I am not angry; I am pleased, but I tell you for your own benefit you have not yet hardly, hardly begun on the goodness that is available to you saith the Spirit of Grace.

