Get Strong, Strong in My Word and Strong in My Spirit

I have prepared you for the end time saith the Spirit of Grace. I have and am presently still preparing you line online and precept on precept. All those who have ears to hear; Those who will go into my presence and go into the place where I'm able to download in you the strength, the grace, the power and the love and everything that's necessary for you to make your stand in the hours which are to come. For many things are coming up on the earth, many things that was prophesied in my word, but even in my word I was not able to give the distinct details of many of the things that you will see and witness in your heart that is part of the last day. For there is a pouring out of my Spirit in the last day there is also a pouring out of the enemy of his wrath and his vengeance against my church; but know this all those who prepare themselves in that place and go into that place that I have provided you will find that my grace is more than sufficient saith the Spirit of Grace. And you will be happy and you will rejoice and you would be glad that you became a part of ministries like this and heard sound words and were able to make yourself strong before the hour of temptation for know there is a time coming as I promised in my word as I cited in my word like the earth has never seen; Be strong, be vigilant know that many of your brothers in Christ will need you. Those who are listening to weak messages will need you in the days ahead; they will need your voice of encouragement; they will look to you for direction and you will give it with soundness and with love saith the Spirit of Grace. For many who think them self to be strong will find himself to be very weak in the hour of temptation for much is coming, but in the midst of it a great harvest. This will be your joy in the midst of persecution in the midst of hardness will be a great harvest like the world has never seen. That which was the former and the latter is coming together saith the Spirit of Grace. I am bringing all things to accomplish my will in the earth. All things were from him and of him and all things go back to him. Know this that I am pulling all things together for this harvest saith the Spirit of Grace; so get strong, get strong, strong in my word and strong in my spirit and you will be glad you did, saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah.
