

Prophecies - The Family Prayer Center - 2014

Prophecy140330-1 March 30th 2014

Simplicity of the Gospel is a Trust

I provided it for you. The simplicity of the gospel is a trust. You cannot make these things come to pass. Your petitions before me; bringing them is a step of faith but you have to trust me to come behind you even when they're presented to give the grace for the faith for these things to be made manifest. So as you step out on deep waters at times know this that places that you've not known before the things that you've not experienced before may seem overwhelming at the start but stay the course for I am there as I said I will never leave you nor forsake you. You'll find, you'll find with each step there will be a growing strength, there will be a growing tenacity of grace that will encompass your spirit and before you know it you'll pass the darkness. You'll get past everything that seemingly has a capacity to stop you. The next level of my grace and glory in the fullness that the earth is looking for to receive is the manifestation of the sons of God. You're part of that; Step out; continue to trust. You'll find a way in the wilderness. Hallelujah Jesus.