

Prophecies - The Family Prayer Center - 2014

Prophecy140518 May 18th 2014

All has been Set before You

Take; take what you want for all has been set before you for I have not brought you in that I would send you away not having. The table is set before you and will be set before you in this hour and in the hours ahead in this week. Reach over and take a portion and take more than a portion of everything that you need for I am laying all these things in front of you and I'll give you a way of escape. I'll give you a way to build yourself up on your most holy faith and receive everything that you need, not only in this hour, but in the hours that I know that you'll face in the days ahead. So, all has been provided; all you have to do is reach over and take what you want, saith the Spirit of Grace. Hallelujah.