Take these Words and Live

Take these words and live saith the Spirit of Grace. For very few hear these words; Most that would hear them would become offended and equivocate that there is a stanch rebuke. But those who have ears to hear love; love chastening because they understand that it takes them to another place, saith the Spirit of Grace. So embrace these things, embrace them and love them and nurture them; call Wisdom your Sister and Understanding your Cousin your Kinswomen. Call these things unto you and embrace them and say, I love you; I love the rebuke of the Lord for everyone that he rebukes and chastens he loves as a Father his Sons and Daughters. Father we love you we thank you for this in Jesus' name, amen!
