Your Greatest Call

For I love you with an everlasting love, saith the Spirit of Grace. I gave my very best that Heaven had to offer from the very life blood of my Son. So I continually convince you by my spirit and my word that you are loved beyond all human expression to know love, saith the Spirit of Grace. Do you not know that I spoke and said my mercy's fresh and a new every day? saith the Spirit of Grace. It was always meant from the very beginning in the old and then by the birth of the new, that I would express to my children a continue place that I was desiring to transform them; transform them into the image of the first begotten, saith the Spirit of Grace. For know this and always decide this in your heart that your greatest call; your greatest call is not to see miracles; your greatest call is not to see revival; your greatest call is to be conformed to the image of my son, see you in the spirit of grace. For this cause I gave you the Holy Spirit that you might always be being conformed; for many would say in their heart I'm out; I'm out there in certain areas of my life; I'm not exactly where I need to be. That's why I gave you the Holy Spirit. Return unto me, saith the Spirit of Grace. Come back. The first place where the return starts at is to begin to allow me to pray through you the mysteries. For this will recalibrate your life. For many of you have given me awful choices to deal with, though you were my children. Many wrong decisions; many self-made and flesh made decisions. But each time that you come back and begin to truly offer yourself up in humility and pray the mysteries, I'll once again begin to recalibrate and recalculate and change your life right back into my perfect will, saith the Spirit of Grace. For I'm way out there, I'm way out there. I've heard your hearts, your thoughts. He loves me, but He knows I'm out there. Yes this is why I gave you the Holy Spirit. The moment that you begin to yield your heart in humility and submission, you've entered back into perfect, saith the Spirit of Grace. Not all things are perfect but you've entered back into perfect. You've entered back into that which is my perfect will which will lead you and guide you into the perfecting of your life. Many things need to be reversed. Many things need to happen. You don't have the strength to reverse certain things. But the call to perfection is humility, saith the Spirit of Grace. Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God that he may exalt you in due season. The season in which you begin the process and the season in which I bring all things to fruition, is that time of you giving yourself over to me, saith the Spirit of Grace. So begin and know that you are loved, know that Heaven loves you and holds you in highest regards. But that which if you would choose, if you choose that which is perfect, you'll humble yourself and pray the mysteries, saith the Spirit of Grace.
