Be Relentless

Those that were without hope I sent my son and I gave you a spirit that was born after him. This spirit, your new nature is filled with every capacity to believe, to believe against all lies, to believe against every contradictory emotion and every lie that the enemy or the body could present against the truth. For some would say. I know that all things are possible for him, but I've lost hope in myself. I've lost hope in having that level of faith to believe and I would say into you, saith the Spirit of Grace, this is why that I sent my Holy Spirit for he that searches the heart knows what is the mind of the Spirit for he maketh intercession for the Saints of God according to the will of God and we know that all these things work together for our good, saith the Spirit of Grace. I can build you up upon your most holy faith. Even when you do not know what it is in you that is resisting; even when you don't understand what it is that's causing you to temporarily fail; give yourself over to the intercessor through praying in other tongues. Be relentless. Stay in that place whether in the closet of prayer or in daily activities. Let my Spirit pray through you and for you, saith the Spirit of Grace, for not a moment is lost in my presence and not one syllable is lost in the airwaves of my Spirit; every word spells out your deliverance. Every word spells out, you were thirty, sixty and eventually a hundredfold building towards the end result, saith the Spirit of Grace. I hear the Lord say, many are without hope, many come to a place where they believe they've tried everything; and he's talking of course of the things in the spirit; they've made application to faith but as yet they think they're seeing no result. But I testify to you, saith the Spirit of Grace, the things that are working in the spirit realm are working on your behalf and even before the materialization of the actual physical comes into the material realm or the physical realm; know this that I'll build a spark in your hope, I'll build a faith in your faith, saith the Spirit of Grace. I am the one that causes that which is nothing to be. I had no substance when I created the worlds to begin with. I created the substance by which I created them. I'm the originator of your born-again spirit. It came out of me. Do not say your heart or with your mouth there is no hope. The very spirit that you are now has already been fashioned and formed. I created it with endless hope inside of it, saith the Spirit of Grace. Be who you are; allow my spirit to bring this man of life forward and you'll find your hope resounds and comes back to fullness, saith the Spirit of Grace.
