Let My Glory Come

I gave instruction through Paul to the church to the proper order of church services. It was never meant to hold the corner back; it was never meant to keep back my Spirit from falling on all flesh as I prophesied through Joel. It was to hold back, keep back confusion, but to those who went in in those days and allowed my word to transform them and throughout the ages those who have allowed my word to transform them have allowed my Spirit to bring them forth to produce in the services the atmosphere that I desired. So I would say unto you, saith the Spirit of Grace, to sing in the spirit, to sing with the understanding to worship in the spirit and worship with the understanding. Let my glory flow through you that you might be continually transformed into the image of the firstborn, saith the Spirit of Grace. When you come together like this allow my spirit to flow; do not hold back for in understanding there is a safety and as these things have been laid before you line upon line and precept upon precept, there is an understanding in your foundation that allows me to bring this place to a higher level in my call. For surely I desire to visit you with signs and wonders and great miracles, but these things ride in on your worship, saith the Spirit of Grace. So bring forth in the spirit and in the understanding. Let my glory come. Do not abate; do not hold back for surely I do not, saith the Spirit of Grace
