As Joel's army

For truly the message of the hour has gone forth and will continue to go forth about the cleansing of my bride. The power of the new nature and those that are in the church but are still part of the world; doing those things that are part of the flesh. This is a valid and true message of the hour and I will continue and love to teach this as you go forward. But I offer to everyone standing here and to those that are listening in places and those that would be listening in the days ahead; that the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Spirit is extended to you; strength and grace to empower you in these hours to come forth in weakness, weakness to flesh as in submission to sin or weakness to torment, weakness to things that debilitate the body. To those that are in a fight with the flesh concerning sin; I say to you do not let Satan or the flesh give you any other narrative, any other parable except one, that you are free today and that I love you today and that my love is extended to you today and I desire to wash you; I desire to cleanse you and I desire to give you the absolute hope that you are free and the faith to walk in that, saith the Spirit of Grace. For many times the enemy comes and reminds of past failures. It is through that entrance that he gains more strength in the flesh to take you out into continued disobedience. But know that you are loved; know that you see yourself as an Elder in the house of God; see yourself as one that has walked through. See yourself as turning to other young men and other young women and to other men and other ladies and saying I walked through this; I see myself free and I walked through it. See yourself healed of every infirmity. See yourself with more vibrancy and more strength and more vitality and more ability of the mind for memory, intelligence, comprehension, then ever before. You are not a weak people. If there is any weakness in you, I have not placed it there. If there is any weakness, I will heal you for I have healed you, saith the Spirit of Grace. Get ready for change. Get ready for change. Many would say, Lord I'll do whatever you ask but how can I do what I'm doing in my job and my family and carry these things out? This is what I said when I said I will give you the wisdom. I'll give you the wisdom. I will give you wisdom to know how to live in the midst of revival. When everything changes, allow me to take that which is normal in your life and turn it upside down. Not to chaos. Believe me in this those of you that are settled in peace. When I say change I say things are going to be different than ever before; I am not speaking of chaos; I am speaking of life and joy and exuberance of serving me in the kingdom like never before. They will run and not be weary; they will walk and not faint but they shall mount up with wings as an eagle, saith the Spirit of Grace. My strength will infuse you day and night. My joy; You will be as Joel's army that you will walk in file and rank and you will not parish by the sword nor will you destroy with the spear. Speak my word over everything, saith the Spirit of Grace.
