

Prophecies - The Family Prayer Center - 2019

Prophecy190123b January 23rd 2019

Do Not Relent

For the hungry heart I am available to fill your hunger. From the beginning and even before the beginning of this year, I began to petition you from out of my spirit to seek my face. I have no hope in the earth except those that can hear my voice, saith the Spirit of Grace and for those that are listening in this place and those that are listening in other places, hear what the spirit of Lord says. I will empower you. I will empower you to judge yourself. In the first place I would have you to judge yourself as in your time spent, saith the Spirit of Grace. I'm petitioning an army, soliciting an army of men and women which will be used by me beyond their present tense capacity to even comprehend, to even comprehend where I will take them, saith the Spirit of Grace. I am going to visit many of you in dreams and in visions and reawaken many of you dreamers and reawaken many of you who have had gifts in this line before. I am saying to you, you are my hope in the earth as he was my hope, one candle; now again my hope is to those who hear my voice. Judge yourself first in distractions. Judge yourself. The faster you go the easier it will be not to hear and to obey but I tell you that if you will obey I will accelerate all your works, saith the Spirit of Grace.

Will you trust me? Will you set aside times to be alone in my presence and to seek my face and to fast during this season? Harness your flesh. No one will do it for you. Every excuse that you had in this last year, let it burn under the fire of my refiners fire, saith the Spirit of Grace; I cannot make you this; to those who have ears to hear only those will hear and obey. For I see a great army, saith the Spirit of Grace, one that is described in my word for I desire in these days to fulfill my word. For those who have waited most patiently for the coming harvest, do not relent. Do not cast away your confidence which has a great recompense, a great recompense of reward! Stay in that position. Keep moving forward, for both male and female; man and woman will be used in this outpouring but it will be by choice, not mine but yours.