

Prophecies - The Family Prayer Center - 2019

Prophecy190217 February 17th 2019

Providential Guiding

Enter into the very best that I have for you, saith the Spirit of Grace. Enter into the very best that I have for you to become obedient hearers of my word, not just that which was written but that which was prophesied. There is a direct leadership of the spirit by which I can speak directly to you and lead you and guide you in wisdom, speaking to your heart in dreams and visions and out of my word. There is also the providential guiding leadership of the Holy Spirit. I desire both. Behind the scenes when you don't even know. When your desire is towards me, I am leading you and guiding you and directing you towards all truth. These times are orchestrated, ordained, destined and purposed by my spirit. Enter in. Give your ear to the door post of my voice. Listen intently and hear what my spirit would say for in these last days through my virgin church, through those ones who have separated themselves and continue to separate themselves to serve me, whose lamps are burning whose oil will not go out. I desire to speak my word and prophesy truth where the truth is line on line, precept upon precept and it will still be prophecy and I say to you that in the services know this that I am orchestrating that voice that you may hear, that enter in. Step through the door. Lean your ear closer to the door that you may hear. For these things beyond your knowledge are leading you for a purpose in that which you so desire to stand purposefully in these last days full, full of the oil, full of the wine; full of the life that this world needs. These particular now, today and in this week's services will serve in this purpose. Lean your heart. Lean your ear. Hear with the spirit has to say for I have called you for this purpose and even beyond your knowledge. I am working a work, saith the Spirit of Grace.