

Prophecies - The Family Prayer Center - 2019

Prophecy June 23rd 2019

Be a Light to My Church

Am I not able to complete the good work that I have begun in this church saith the Spirit of Grace? From the days of its beginning, I've built it – line upon line, precept upon precept – after My Word and after My doctrine. For many winds have come and many winds have blown against this house, against its leadership and against those who would come in and out but the reason why that you have stood is because you've built your house on the doing of My sayings, saith the Spirit of Grace.

And again I come to you and I say to you – I petition your hearts. Come away with Me. Renew your solemn place and vow in your heart to stay close and to pray and to seek My face. For I desire to do many wonderful things that which I have prophesied from the very beginning, through the fathers of the faith that have stood in this pulpit and have given prophecies in days gone by. I have not forgotten My Word to you, saith the Spirit of Grace.

Do not be shaken, and do not be soon shaken by the things that are coming upon this planet. For in the midst of all the darkness, you shall be a great and shining light to the world, saith the Spirit of Grace. And I'm also calling you to be a light to My church. For there are many that have went over to a place of a grace that's not described in My Word. But many of these have not yet given themselves over totally to this doctrine. For just as I gave Jezebel space to repent in the book of Revelation, so I'm giving a space for many of these to once again turn from their wickedness.

And those who have heard their doctrine, who are subject to their words, I'm calling again to these. And I'm calling again to these through your words and through your doctrine and through your prayers. Do you not know that you can rescue them, and that you can rescue much of the church through your prayers to Me for them?

So, do not give up on this revival. For this revival is at hand, saith the Spirit of Grace. And do not give up on all those who have left. For many will return knowing that I have called them back to a place of truth and a solidness in My Word that will not pass away, saith the Spirit of Grace.

Many ministries have dissolved or gone another way or taught a false doctrine, when in their conception their heart was like yours – desiring to receive something pure. But I gave you from the beginning that which would pray out the soundness of truth. And by the soundness of truth you have learned how powerful that which I placed in you through the new nature is from its conception.

For many places have fallen and many men have gone another way, and even when their buildings have not been abandoned and even when the crowds increased, they have forsaken and they are empty. And I see their houses of worship empty with great crowds in them because when the winds came, and the floods came, they could not stand because they were not founded upon a rock. I gave you the wisdom from the very beginning to continue to utter the mysteries of prayer through the power of praying in the spirit and uttering the mysteries in tongues.

And decade after decade you've persevered, and I've shown you through My Word the power of the new nature that's in you. Stand upon this for when men forsake this, they walk another way. When men walk away from My power, they're walking away from My Word. And even though that which I placed within them is able to resist sin, before long it will begin to receive a lie and the lie will turn into a permission to walk in the flesh. And the permission to walk in the flesh will give excuses to the flesh. And after excuses have built a great edifice and built a great building for people to live in, they will live in their fortified cities of strongholds, believing that what they believe is right and others are wrong.

For many have built, and some have built that stronghold even here in your midst but I am after them even this day, saith the Spirit of the Lord, to dismantle, not to punish, but to dismantle arguments and to bring down high things that exalts itself against the knowledge of God and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ.

I desire all My children to be with Me in this place of intimacy. I desire all My children to come away with Me and what I have planned for them in these last days, saith the Spirit of Grace. So pray the mysteries and worship Me and seek Me to know Me at all times, saith the Spirit of the Lord for I will fulfill in you that which I have promised, saith the Spirit of Grace.