Remind Yourselves. Set a Clock. Write a Note.

Remind yourselves. Remind yourselves. Set a clock. Write a note. Call out to me continually to remind you of the place of intimacy and the place of consecration. From the least to the greatest I am calling you.

And I'm hearing him saying it like this but you wouldn't think that God himself would say this but I, prophetically I hear him.

Please! Please! Make no excuses for the flesh of why you cannot for I'll provide adequate time for everything necessary under the sun to be done. Even in the five minutes, the ten minute intervals of consecration. Whatever is yours in stealing time or borrowing time give unto me, saith the Spirit of Grace. For there has never been a people from the dawn of time through history or my recorded word that ever went to a place of exultation in my presence and received from me the outflow of power that change the nations and civilizations that did not come to know me intimately in fellowship, saith the Lord.

There is no replacement for it. There is no revelation that replaces it. True fellowship in my presence must be just that; that you would spend time fellowshiping with me; that I will flow to you. My first desire is to flow to you as my Son, as my Daughter that I have conceived and brought forth: Then after times of fellowship after seasons and days; after times of my coming, this group and others and individuals will be exalted into the position that you already see in my word, saith the Spirit of Grace.

Much of what you desire to see to come to pass is lacking because of this very element. May your words be filled with anointing that breaks the yoke. May your words be filled with that that pierces the atmosphere in the home, in the marriage, in the workplace; the anointing of my spirit breaks the yoke.

Fellowship in my presence and waiting on me brings that anointing. I created you for fellowship. I did not create you to stand alone. Nor even to stand alone in honor of everything that I had created you to be. I created you for continual fellowship in my presence.

The healings of the body that which comes up on the inside and heals the heart and the mind, perfect love cast out all fear; where fear is there's torment.

I heard the Lord saying;

In my presence things will happen to you that you won't know will happen to you as you pray the mysteries and as you continue to worship me and my presence and my presence saturate your being. First from that place of created worship, knowing me in spirit and in truth; then I desire to ease out, ooze out, bring forth, go into other places of the very person that you are, the healing of the soul and places that you do not understand why you react the way you do. Why fear comes up at certain times. Why panic attacks. Why anger. Why certain systems of thought.

In that place of dominion you are free. But I desire for you to experience your freedom with me. Stay in these places. Stay in these places here and stay in these places there in your home. Stay in these places as often as you can for healing is in my presence, saith the Spirit of Grace: love, mercy and peace.
