They Made It

Prophecy210214e – February 14, 2021

They made it. They made it, says the Lord. The one that you were standing for and that you stood for, and that you've questioned in days gone by, they're here with Me, says the Spirit of Grace. For I'll place a witness inside of you concerning their hearts. But My answer to many today, My answer to many today that stood in that place of intercession for them, even to the end, that never knew because they were in a far away place, or some place, or a time there'd been a space in time that you could not communicate to them – But once again I rise up on the inside of many of you, and I say take this Word as continual hope and renewal of hope in your heart. You will see them again in My presence, says the Spirit of Grace. Let peace govern your life. Let the witness on the inside communicate to you that they're here with Me, says the Spirit of the Lord. For many of them, it was their last breath, and a consciousness of Me.

(Pastor Bronc: Now He's speaking real specifically. There's no way for me to know this, except...)

Even many of those in tragedy where it seemed like a split-second thing, I was able to come to that place in the twilight between the actual death and the closing moments of their life and bring forth a picture of the reality of all truth that had ever been said to them. And I received as in mercy their "Yes" to me. So I say unto you, if I made these things so profoundly simple for anyone to enter in, why would you not continue to pray vehemently for these, and for your cities, and continue to broadcast this? Even with invitations, even with a simple, "God bless you," even with the things that seem so miniscule. For I said that even a cup of cool water would not pass from one to the next, that I would not take pleasure in these things. I'll follow you. I'll follow you. I promised I'd follow you. I'll follow you. I'll follow you into the places where there is no presence.
