

Prophecy – The Family Prayer Center

The Mindset of Revival Now

Prophecy210321a – March 21, 2021

Say to the people, says the Spirit of the Lord, Revival is now. Do not claim it as in it's coming, but realize it, and believe it, and receive it. For the authority necessary to bring forth these things is among you. As My Kingdom has always been among you, stand fast in these days. See the hour and seize it, says the Spirit of the Lord. Do not look to the right hand or to the left. Don't be concerned about who's praying and not praying, that's none of your business. What I've asked you to do is to stay in a straightforward fashion going forward. You alone are enough to cause the Revival. When you look to the right or to the left to try to figure out where someone else's spiritual status is, you bring your own spiritual status low. Stand in this place and look up unto Me! See the parking lot full, see the House full, see the field full. I do not just give you a vision to excite your senses, but rather to believe that Revival is now, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Divorce yourself from the old. Say goodbye to the old, and kiss the new. Believe Me for Holy Ghost services like you've never had before, for only the leadership of My Spirit will win the lost, and heal, and bring forth miracles, says the Spirit of the Lord. See hundreds baptized in a baptismal tank in your parking lot, week after week, dozens and dozens and dozens going under and coming up. See the salvation of the Lord among you now. Speak it among you now, claim it now. Do not say, "When Revival gets here..." Speak and say these things. These things are well available to us now, says the Spirit of Grace. And then as I move you, wherever you live, and those you come into contact with, as I move you by My leadership, move out. Speak to them, and see if I will not solicit from them the response necessary to confirm the moment and bring the wisdom of the hour. And the anointing of My Spirit will be there, I have promised you this in My Word. I did not send you forth as orphans without My anointing. Too many have depended upon formulas. Depend upon My Spirit. Go as I say go, do as I say do. My anointing is upon you now. The hour is now, says the Spirit of Grace.