Part 1 - Do Not Concede in the Spirit to Save Your Marriage

If you'll go to the place,

[Pastor Bronc: Now this is specific. It's not random or out there. It'll hit where it needs to hit, and it's probably more than one.]

If you'll go to the place that I'm asking you to do,

[Pastor Bronc: This is real specific then. I could've just left it on either side.]

but if you'll go to the place that I'm asking you to do as a wife, spiritually, and make your stand, you'll bring him in, though there's a part of him in, yet not all the way.

[Pastor Bronc: Okay, here He goes to both.]

To both sides, what you're giving up and conceding to get along and stay married is the very thing that you're conceding in the flesh. It's the very thing that's keeping you apart. "But I'll lose them. I'll lose them if I pressure them in the spirit." I didn't say for you to pressure them, but I said for you to separate yourself, not to a place of isolation that keeps you from being a husband or wife, but to a place where they see that you're sold out to Me beyond all things. The temper tantrums in the flesh will only last for a season, but I'll save, I'll be able to hold things together. But your conceding and giving up ground to hold the marriage together,

[Pastor Bronc: I hate to tell you this, but He's saying it.]

it's not going to last.

[Pastor Bronc: And I don't know exactly who all that's for. It could be somebody out there.]

Part 2 - Conditions for Revival

Too many of you are giving up things in your relationships at home, with children, and other things. When I've asked you to go in and you've argued with me, "I can't do this. Don't You know I have this obligation, that obligation, this obligation?" You've not asked Me how to solve that, you've just argued with Me. You've not besought Me how to separate yourself, you've just argued with Me. And you're still Mine, and I'm still pleased, and I still love you, but you're never coming in. You're never coming in to the place that I have for you if you don't come in to this place that I'm asking you to come in to in intimacy, and separation at times. You can't stand out on the porch and look inside the House and admire what's going on, and believe that you're a part of it. You'll stand in the place where Revival is going on and you'll watch it, but you'll only be a spectator of sorts. I'm asking each one of you, male and female, young and old, to come apart.

Do not admire any pastor, any elder, any preacher, any teacher, as in what they have with Me, when you yourself will not go in. I've asked you to have the same measure that I would give to anyone, says the Spirit of Grace. Kingdom of God, come, and will of God be done now, is the truth that I'm asking you to believe. Go into the highways and go into the byways and compel them to come in, but under My leadership. [Do] not [go] to the streets as in a false narrative of "Let's hit the streets!" What street? Which street are you going to? What place? Those in the mall will mock you, those on the street will mock you, and they'll have nothing to do with you without My anointing. Your narrative is not right. My first church was led about by My Spirit, and everywhere they went they preached the Gospel, but it was the introduction of My Spirit going before them, says the Spirit of Grace.

Be filled with, and walk in with attitude of strength and life everywhere you go, because everywhere you go is an opportunity waiting. Some days will be many, some days will be none, but I'll always be preparing a way before you, says the Spirit of Grace. See your field, this physical field outside of this Church, filled with people. They can't get in the building, you'll have to minister to them out there.

Part 3 - The Simple Gospel

I've called you to lay hands upon the sick. Not that you be the one to rush over, except it be a place where I solicit such strong solicitation like the Gate Beautiful, or the time when Paul perceived that the man had faith through the preaching of My Word. When I speak to you in times like that, move forward. But otherwise expect that [it will be] by your words. And when I tell you to speak My Gospel, just speak My Gospel. Just give the simplicity of the Gospel. Do not rabbit trail, do not go this way or that way, just speak the vanilla, blatant truth of Christ and His love, and how He's changed your life. "We need more training, we need more training." The training is far greater than you need, says the Spirit of Grace. What training do you need to do the things that I've asked you to do? The first church had neither seminar nor written Word to train them, and yet they knew the testimony of the Gospel was this: He is risen, and there is power for salvation, and there is power to accompany with miracles, says the Spirit of Grace. Forget the false narrative of "I need more training. I need more this, and I need more that, and I need to hear somebody else to get me ready for this."

The least among you [can do this]. And get them filled, says the Spirit of Grace. Get them filled with the Holy Ghost. "I need more training." You need no more training, except to tell them that He has given us a Holy Ghost that will fill their spirits. And if you'll touch them on the shoulder and pray with them, and ask them to believe and only speak the language which comes up out of their spirit, they will begin to be baptized in My Spirit out there like they're baptized in here, says the Spirit of Grace. What are you waiting for?

Much of you not doing is based on your emotions, because you're waiting then in those places of commonality, just common places, to feel something of exuberance, or feel My Spirit as in when you feel it when you're worshipping Me like right now. But understand that a gentle nudge on the inside with hardly any presence will be enough for you to begin to mention My name to them. And that solicitation will begin to bring more and more opportunity for you to minister to them. It may be all at once, it may be through several meetings or opportunities.

When they tell you that they've been born again, ask them if they speak in tongues. This is the day and hour where the nice-y-nice and the sweetie-sweetie is way past due to be stopped. You've mannered yourself with so-called good manners. You've mannered My Gospel to death, says the Spirit of Grace. There is a loving approach, but you fear too much being rejected. Many of you will be rejected at times, but I promised you that at the slightest of persecution, My spirit of joy would rest upon you. Take joy in every opportunity. Drop your manners, and follow My manners, says the Spirit of the Lord. "He is hard. I don't dare say anything to him." It's time that you did! It's time that you said more. It's time that you get a rolled-eye response, or a “Huh! I’ve heard that.” I’m pushing you out of the nest. I want you persecuted for My Gospel’s sake. I want slanderous things said about you for My Gospel’s sake. I want you to be insulted for My Gospel’s sake. I want you to become unpopular for My Gospel’s sake. I want people to unfriend you on social media because of My Gospel’s sake.

Who has fathered you, says the Spirit of Grace? Who has fathered you? What is His name, and what is His Son’s name? You’ve been fathered by the Father of the universe. All wisdom is given to you on every approach, every evangelical approach, and everything that you do. Drop the formulas, and drop anything that you’ve ever heard where somebody else is doing something else someplace else. I gave that to them for their place. What am I saying to you?

I desire to heal your home, I desire to heal your bodies, and I desire to raise your finances up. Many of you have squandered what I’ve given you, and it’s hard to give you more because of how squandering you are, and how many holes you have in your bag. You’re going to have to cinch up the places and sew up the places where you’re overspending and where you’re spending foolishly [in order] to have more, because I desire to give you more. And I desire to pour out blessings upon you in these last days so that you’re blessed, and My Gospel is financed in the earth. But you’re going to have to sew up these places. You’re going to have to sharpen your pencils where there’s overspending because of the flesh. [Pastor Bronc: And He is not saying, and I see the parentheses, He’s not saying “sinful flesh.” Just an overabundance of unnecessary things.] Ask of Me, ask of Me, I desire to give you more. But know this, I’ll not give you more so you can spend more foolishly. Become stewards for the House, and for yourself, and mostly for the Gospel.
