Take What You Need From Me

Prophecy220206c – February 6, 2022

Take what you need from Me, says the Lord. Receive it, not of works but of My grace, says the Spirit of Grace. Whatever it is that you need and whatever you have contemplated in your heart, both emotionally, physically, and in every area of your life, receive that of My Presence in which I'm standing in this place, offering to each one of you, and that place where you're at, an invitation to come in like never before, says the Spirit of the Lord. Astounded you'll be at what I have to offer. Trade nothing for it. Give intimacy. Wage a great war within yourself to separate yourself to this place. For you're not able presently in your mind to conceive the places that I'll come to you internally and provide places of expansion of peace beyond whatever you have ever known before in the past, says the Spirit of Grace.
