The Beginning of Miracles

Prophecy220410 – April 10, 2022

These types of things, and much more, are scheduled. This is only beginning, says the Spirit of Grace. Push in harder by your own election. Make choices continually. Because it's your authority, not My sovereignty, that brings about the eyewitness of what you are seeing. But I have many more. This in the Spirit is just an hors d'oeuvre to serve to you. [It will] continually petition you and ask you as My dear sons and daughters to push back the flesh enough to go in behind the veil, behind the veil of the flesh. These things and much, much greater have I scheduled in this outpouring for you, says the Spirit of the Lord.
