Revival Change and Intercession

Prophecy220713 – July 13, 2022

I speak to you, spirits of infirmity. I say to the saints of God, you will live and not die. Do not believe the report that is come to you in recent days. Hold up the banner of truth, and side with the right! Side with the right, says the Lord. Side with the right sayings of My Word. Stand on My Word. Things will change, they will change, says the Spirit of the Lord. Stand in My Word and watch Me move, says the Spirit of Grace.

Keep it up, intercessors – you women, you men. Your efforts are not going in vain, says the Lord. You're changing things, you're changing things, you're changing things, says the Lord. You're changing things, says the Lord. You're changing even the atmosphere in these services. The days ahead will be Holy Ghost services. Holy Ghost services, says the Lord. Holy Ghost services. Jesus services will take over. What you've seen before in the past is shortly to diminish and pass away. There's a change, a climate change in the spirit that's coming, says the Lord. I'm going to get in the pews, I'm going to get in the seats. I'm going to get into places that you didn't think [were] possible.

Watch your family members. Your husbands are going to be saved, your wives are going to be saved in this Outpouring. Things you didn't think possible in the natural are going to take place in this Outpouring, says the Spirit of the Lord. Give Me praise as if these things were done already, says the Lord. Give Me praise that these things are done already, says the Lord.
