Say Yes to Me and I Will Be With You

Prophecy220717b – July 17, 2022

There's prosperity in this, says the Lord. These things are being spoken unto you, male or female, mother, sister, daughter, child. To those that will take these things and allow Me to come and tailor them, I'll come to you personally, because I know every single one of you and I know every single one of your schedules. But if you will say yes and not blanketly say no because "I can't do this," if you'll say yes to Me, says the Spirit of the Lord, I'll come. I'll show you, I'll initiate, I'll institute, and I'll be with you during the most difficult times and the driest times, and I'll bring you forth. And I'll cause you to walk in great joy, ecstatic-ness of love, and peace, and power, says the Spirit of the Lord. The world is waiting on you. Your friends are waiting on you. Your coworkers are waiting on you. I have no other selection. You're My choice, you're My choice, says the Spirit of the Lord. Come after Me. Follow Me in this, says the Spirit of the Lord.
