A Word to Parents in These Last Days

Prophecy220717d – July 17, 2022

You parents, I speak to you. You are watchmen for your children. Be so keen to the Spirit. Be so keen to My Spirit, says the Lord. If your child is even at someone else's home and I speak to you, go get them, go get them, go get them. It doesn't matter the day, the hour it is, but you leave your home and get your child because you will protect them from the plan of the enemy. And if I say, "They don't go to school today," they don't go to school. Be keen, listen, listen to My Spirit. For you are the watchmen for your family.

So heed to My voice. Be so sensitive in these days and hours ahead because of the plans of the enemy for this world. But you will overcome if you stay in prayer, if you stay before My face and in My Word. I will lead you, I will guide you, I will direct you. It's so important in the days and the hours ahead. Listen to the Spirit of the Lord. Listen, listen, listen. Listen to My voice, and follow through. Follow, follow, follow, follow through. For I will protect you, I will protect your family. I will lead you and guide you and direct you. When you're even in your car and I say, "Oh no, don't go that way, but go this way," that's what you do. Be so keen to My Spirit. I will lead you, guide you, direct you. I will keep you from harm.

I will lead you to bring deliverance for others as you listen to My voice, and as you spend the time in prayer, as you spend the time in intimacy with Me. Spend the time, so you know and you can be used and will be used in these last days. And My glory shall fall in this earth. My glory shall fall in this place, because you seek My face. You seek My way and not your way.

Wake up, young people. Wake up millennials. Wake up, children. Listen, listen, listen. Train your children, it's so vital for these last days. Train them to even be sensitive to My Spirit, and to call you and say, "Come get me." So they will call you, and they will hear My voice also and follow through, as you be the example to them. Be the example. Be the example. Watch your words. Watch what goes on in your home. Turn off the TV. Put down the cell phones. Put down the book, and read My Book. Read My Book. Worship Me. Spend the time with Me. Spend the time. For the time is short. The time is short.
