We Have Found the Answer

Prophecy220925 – September 25, 2022

Let there go forth a cry from the House of God, says the Spirit of the Lord. Say unto them, “Come up with me to the House of God.” Gather them in the highways and the byways and the streets. Call upon them and speak My Word to them, says the Spirit of the Lord. When they hear you and turn to you, say unto them, “We’ve found the answer. We found help. We found the answer in this generation. We found the answer to lives that are destroyed and being destroyed.” Give them hope, says the Spirit of the Lord. I’m going to begin to put you in opportunity after opportunity with the world. Say unto them, “Come up with me to the House of God. We found the answer. We found the answer. We found the answer for this generation. We found the answer for peace. We found the answer for joy,” says the Spirit of the Lord. “We found the answer for restoration of life and marriages and children. We found the answer! Come and see.”

Go into the city as the woman did at the well and tell them, “I have found the answer.” Don’t muddy the waters by even trying to explain everything. Just tell them you found the answer, and [let] them follow you back to the source, says the Spirit of the Lord. I desire My House full. I desire My House full. And the hour’s now, says the Spirit of the Lord. Tell them you have found the answer.

To those that are watching, [if] you have no particular building to direct them to, say this: “I have found the answer. This is my church. This is what I watch. This is where we receive directives from the Lord.” Give them hope. The world is searching for hope. Give them an answer of hope. Create for them a vision of hope and tell them you’ve found the answer, says the Spirit of the Lord.
