A Healing Covenant in Me

Prophecy221204a – December 4, 2022

I desire, says the Lord, to heal your bodies. Before a prayer line or before even hands laid upon you, you have a covenant, an inheritance in Me directly, says the Spirit of Grace. The finger of God, the Holy Spirit, is upon your bodies now. Believe Me past every symptom. Believe Me past every doctor's report. Believe me past what your body is presently preaching to you in a sermon of pain. Believe Me, says the Spirit of the Lord. Receive, even now, in Jesus' name.
