Confidence, Oh Hidden Ones

Prophecy230226 – February 26, 2023

For many will participate in this outpouring. And as I have said many times in the past, this will not be a man, but an army. An army will rise up in these last days. And thousands upon thousands will participate in the birthing and the process and in those things which will bring about a great outpouring of Revival. And many will walk in the power of miracles and see the demonstration like the which has not been seen since the book of Acts and even beyond, says the Spirit of Grace.

But make no mistake about it, there is an inner sanctum which only those by their own electives will enter in. By their own elective will they enter in, says the Spirit of Grace, by the process of intimacy and fellowshiping in My Spirit, and bringing forth intercession in these last days. Let Me take you, hidden ones, by the hand. For only My hidden ones will be invited to see the inner workings of those things and the behind-the-scenes workings of those things which are in process, says the Spirit of the Lord.

I desire to take you beyond a place of even where the fullness or the masses of the army will operate. For many will operate in gifts, miracles at will. But only the hidden ones, those who've walked in behind the scenes [will go to that place]. Let Me invite you by your own election of choice behind the scenes. Come backstage with Me while everyone enjoys what is going on, on what is deeper than surface level as in comparison to days gone by. While great things are being done in the masses, let Me take you as hidden ones into places that see the very mechanics of the workings by which I will bring these things forth.

And you'll know that there's an advantage in this. You'll know not only the workings of miracles and seeing these things take place, but yours will be an intimacy that behind the scenes produces and brings forth the great workings of miracles. And your joy will be not only seeing these things, but understanding them in a place where even the masses of Joel's army will not be able, except through that place of which I'm calling you into. Come into this place. There is an advantage. I say unto you by the Spirit of the living God, there is an advantage coming into this place, behind the scenes.

Oh hear, oh hidden ones. Hear the Word of the Lord. Press in like never before. Go behind the veil. Many will reap from your benefits. Your humility will be no desire for praise, but in that hidden place, the praise [will be] the confirmation of your obedience and stealing away with Me. (I heard the Word of the Lord say, confidence.) Confidence is 99% of faith. You'll have confidence that I'm with you. Confidence that everything that you say and do is followed with a presence.

Oh, I see a great army rising up, and a great fellowship in the spirit across the planet. And yet, even beyond that, there is an inner sanctum. Let Me take you by the hand again, says the Spirit of the Lord. I'm reaching out. I'm going to be using those who won't even go into this place to the degree that I'm asking you right now. But those who birth it will be of great advantage, a great advantage. Yours will be a confidence beyond all confidence. And even when the army is swayed a little here and a little there, yours will be a stalwartness that has no reflection on the things of this earth, or no reflection by the things of this earth. These are the true hidden ones of Mine, says the Spirit of Grace.
