The Sound of Good Reports

Prophecy240310 – March 10, 2024

There's healing in this. There's restoration in this. The anointing breaks the yoke in this, says the Spirit of Grace. For many of you will hear, and it's for your purpose or for the purpose of your own edification, the sound in this season of good report. Take it from a reliable Source that the hope that I'm extending to you will not be defrauded. It will not be abated. It will not be deferred, says the Spirit of Grace.

Hope in hope and set your foundation upon the solid Rock. He that trusteth in the Lord shall not be ashamed, says the Spirit of Grace. For a great season now is upon you. Mark these words, that more and more good reports from various places [are coming] on every hand – physically, financially, those things that have been being stood for. You'll find and you'll hear that many are receiving, and that change is taking place and miracles are taking place. And if you'll receive it into yourself, hope against all hope, says the Spirit of Grace. Stand now, knowing this, that My grace is sufficient, for it'll not always be this way as [it is] this day, says the Spirit of Grace. But a great sound from Heaven is approaching as a wave, a tidal wave of My glory. And to those that will receive it, you'll hear the reports of good things taking place, and it'll lighten your heart. It'll endow you.

If you choose, as many have chosen, to stay in a downhearted, pessimistic world of hopelessness, I'll still come and do what I can. But for you that will step up and receive on every hand every good report – even when you say, “Well, that's not happening to me. I heard something good happened to them” – I'm the same God to you as I am to them. Know that your time is coming. Your time is coming, and it's not as if I'm visiting one and then visiting another. But I'm working with your faith under the application of the trial that you're in. For some are in deeper trials than others, but all are important to Me, says the Spirit of Grace.

I'll lift you up and I'll cause you to stand, but I say unto you, hope is the building block for faith. For if you divorce yourself from hope, then faith has nothing to set its roots in with expectancy. So, take joy in the blessings of others. Take joy from every good report that you hear in the Body of Christ where I'm coming, or I have come and done something of change in their life. For I am a God and a Father of change, and I'm changing things in the spirit even this morning for you, says the Spirit of Grace.
