

Prophecy – The Family Prayer Center

The World Will Also Face Judgement

Prophecy240602b – June 2, 2024

Just like there's a great wave of My glory that is presently being released – and it'll catch you up in ways that you've not known or seen before in the past, says the Spirit of Grace – for My glory is coming on My Church. For the world has had little to look at by way of comparison to what I left as in soundness of truth and of righteousness. But I'm beginning first, says the Spirit of Grace, to bring judgement. Lovingkindness and tender mercies will follow you in this judgement and even go before you. But I'm going before you with things that you've not seen before in the past. Just like you're looking for notable miracles, there'll be other things attached to this wave of My glory and of My presence. For things that the Church has not seen for generations will once again be instituted, and even greater things, says the Spirit of Grace.

You'll see judgement begin at the House [of the Lord], and what the Church thought was things that only happened in ancient times will come back to modern times. Ananias and Sapphiras will be judged and at times will be carried out of the Church. That's where My judgement will begin, because a standard of My glory will come and men will rise up in righteousness and holiness and exact that standard so that I can come and bring a great lovingkindness and tender mercies-type fear to My Body.

But know this, it'll transcend out of the Church into the world. For even as the first church was judged inwardly, then I also was able to go into the world and bring judgement, says the Spirit of Grace. You'll find that as I do this and as My presence comes with Revival and greater glory, that I'll bring judgement even in the world, says the Spirit of the Lord. As Herod stood with his great orientation in the days of the apostles in his pride and his arrogance and would not give Me glory, the Word says I sent My angel and I struck him, that he died in their presence.

Know this, that you'll see [these things happen]. Note this, not because this man of God says so, but because I say so. Mark it, to see if it is true. You'll see men in high places that will pass suddenly because of My judgement, says the Spirit of the Lord, because they have not humbled themselves. This won't be to all, but at times you'll recognize and know that I came with a judgement. And once again, this judgement is coming out of the Church.

As Paul was able to turn to the sorcerer that withstood the gospel and [stood in the way of] the deputy and the people receiving the truth, as the evil man withstood with a great argument, Paul spoke and said, “For a season, you’ll be cursed with blindness.” And for a season, he did [become blind], because I came in judgement. I’m coming first with judgement in the Church, but out of that, you’ll see that I’ll judge the world as well. And those who withstand the gospel, judgement will come upon them, says the Spirit of Grace, in these last days.

But I’m asking you to stay laser focused. I’m asking you to go into a place where that I can bring this great wave of My presence and My glory, says the Spirit of Grace, so that in the days ahead, men may marvel. They’ll marvel and cry out, “What must I do to be saved?”