Transformation

Prophecy241124 – November 24, 2024

The anointing breaks the yoke, says the Spirit of the Lord. You have not because you ask not. And you ask, but you ask amiss, desiring to consume My grace upon your own lusts. But when you ask, do not waver as the sea tossed about, but believe that My grace is sufficient to change your desires into Mine and to transform even the very brain cells, the neurons. The lust of the flesh and the pride of the flesh is transformed by My Spirit.

For those that will yield themselves to Me will make transformation. They will make transformation without thought. I'll transform them and bring them higher and higher to places of My Spirit that transform their way of thinking, problem solving, and even their physical rest, says the Spirit of Grace.
