Catch My Heart

Prophecy241201 – December 1, 2024

The closer you get to me, says the Spirit of Grace, you'll hear My heart. That all these things that I have been fashioning with you, or fashioning to you and in you concerning intimacy, is to bring you into a place where you catch My heart. Few generations have had My heart, which is souls. Oh, that I would open your eyes and that you would see the world around you dying, dying and going into judgement, and that you'd all the more go into that effectual place of prayer that changes the atmosphere and changes the world around you.

Think not in the traditional way of witnessing evangelism. I'll bring forth the evangelism out of you that was portrayed in My Son. But His place that fueled Him was this place in which I'm soliciting continually and have been – to know Me in this place and to be filled with My passion for the lost, says the Spirit of Grace.
