Yours Is Another Path

Prophecy250112 – January 12, 2025

I have laid out a path in front of you by My Word, says the Spirit of Grace. And I set the example of the prototype in front of you who went about doing good and healing all that were oppressed, destroying all the works of the devil in front of Him. I've called you to a supernatural walk, says the Spirit of Grace. Do not look there, do not look here, do not look around you to find another. For the path is set before you and is plain, says the Spirit of the Lord.

Know this, that in the days ahead I'll summon you, and you'll come into places where you'll march right into the very pits of hell to harvest the lost, says the Spirit of Grace. For I've not given you the spirit of fear, but of power, and love, and a sound mind. This comes about by spending time in My presence. He who is baptized in love has no fear, nor has any offense, says the Spirit of the Lord. For you'll walk in a place where no fear and no offense has any place inside of you or any place to oppress you, says the Spirit of the Lord.

There's a sound in the earth. There are many sounds in the earth and many things are being said. And many are impressed with this and impressed with that and many other things. But know this, that I've called you to a place [where] your internal strength comes about by knowing Me in My Word and knowing Me in My presence; the character of Christ raising up on the inside of you, making you fearless to every giant that will present itself in these last days.

You'll find that much of My army that calls themselves equipped will scatter and run when the enemy stands up, when the Goliaths stand up. Their true colors will be revealed, and the doctrine they followed will be revealed, and the ministers they followed will be revealed by their inability to deal with that which is coming. But yours is another path. Yours is the foundation that I gave the apostles. Yours is the foundation which My Son walked in in a place unabated, unfearful, and unscathed by the offenses that could come and thwart His ministry into another path.

Put down roots, put down roots. And those of you that have roots, endeavor to put your roots deeper, says the Spirit of Grace. Move into a place with unfathomable love. Love My Word, cherish My Word, hold to every sayings of Mine, says the Spirit of Grace. And you'll find that I'll prove Myself. I'll prove Myself through My sayings, says the Spirit of the Lord, and you'll be glad in these last days, says the Spirit of Grace.

I've designed a place of answers for you. I have specific answers to the questions of your heart. For you're in this House today, and some of you online, asking the whys. Know this, that on this path I'll answer those things. But even before that, I'll shore you up with a peace that passes all understanding. Worship Me for a place that you do not yet understand and I'll bring you to a place of understanding. Give unto Me. Give unto Me that gold, that gold which is the issues of your heart, the pureness of your heart.
